At the conclusion of this course, the student will have a better understanding of the methodologies utilized for concealed carry and will be able to identify specific skills that may require further development in order to obtain the proper knowledge, skills and attitude for effective concealed carry with emphasis on:

- Handgun Safety and The Universal Laws of Gun Safety
- Determine why we carry a concealed weapon
- Determine if you have the resident knowledge, skills and attitude for effective concealed carry
- Describe Concealed Carry Methodology
- Explain the Concealed Carry Common Mistakes
- Explain the escalating carry conditions
- Explain the escalation of the situational awareness color codes
- Proper stance, draw, grip and presentation
- Sighted and un-sighted firing
- Clearing Malfunctions
- Psychological and Physiological Responses to a Critically Dynamic Situation
- Lecture and discussion of the West Virginia Code for CCW
- Live fire exercise on a private range

This course is not the typical “cookie cutter” CCW course developed by national organizations and/or other entities. This course was specifically developed from over 50 years of firearms experience, skills, training and research with over 40 years of combined concealed carry experience. The provisions of this course provide an in-depth look at the requirements for the students to become safe, effective and responsible in their daily carry of a concealed weapon. This course is designed in two phases. Phase one is classroom and lecture. Phase two requires live firing on a private range.
